Thank You

to all of you who came to the launch - you and the other 230 made it a fantastic event.

1937 - First tenants

2015 - Relatives of first tenants

BBC

Recording with the BBC took place on Monday 22nd June for 4 hours at Keynor House and Hut with John Littler, Arthur Wilson, Charlie Rowe and John Graves and with Norman Dixon at Kibblesworth Nursery (No 50).

The outcomes were then broadcast on BBC South Today on Thursday 25th June and BBC Radio Sussex Breakfast Show on Friday 26th June

If you didn't see the broadcast - catch-up on the BBC facebook page

Give me feedback, what do you think? Any mistakes?

The website is 'work in progress' and I would welcome more information, stories and photographs.

Mobile App

The trail is also available as an app via the website, again feedback is welcomed - do the GPS links work?

Heritage Trail Leaflet

The trail leaflet can be accessed via the website. You can print off a copy, but expensive in terms in ink - let me know if you would like a copy (Donation of £1.00 minimum to fund the film) and I can deliver one (or more) to you.

What's Next?

1. Let me know if you still wish to be kept informed of the project as it goes forward.
2. Making of our film - interviews started at the launch.
3. Exhibition at the Novium Museum in Chichester (in August?)
4. Archiving the rest of Charlie Rowe's photos - I may need some help!
5. Update meeting in September.
6. Visit from Abington LSA planned for the Autumn.
